

Practice 12

You are now in a park in the morning. Try to make six sentences about what you see.

e.g. A group of women are dancing now.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Check Points

1. When writing, the simple present tense is commonly used in pamphlets, instructions, manuals, handbooks, science books, etc.
2. When the third personal singular is the subject, we must add “s” or “es” to a verb.
3. The present continuous tense is commonly used with the words “now” and “at present”.
4. The adverbs always, sometimes, never, often, etc. are mainly used with the simple present tense.
